Scouts Deliver 2017 BSA Report to the State of Maryland

Annapolis, MD — On President's Day, the Scouts of Maryland, representing the Del-Mar-Va, Baltimore Area, National Capital Area, Laurel Highlands, Mason-Dixon and Chester County Councils, delivered the 2017 BSA Report to the State of Maryland at the House of Delegates Chamber in the State House.

Over 300 Scouts, volunteers, parents and professional Scouters were in attendance. Maryland Governor Larry Hogan received a copy of the report on the steps of the state capital and State Senator Adelaide C. Eckardt, District 37B, received the report on behalf of the Senate. Webelos Scout Benedict Dyer from Pack 190, Saint Mark's United Methodist Church in Easton Maryland, delivered comments on behalf of the council and his two brothers Vincent and Paul Jr. participated in the honor guard.

In Maryland, the Boy Scouts of America develops fundamental qualities in the 45,475 youth members who were served in the councils last year with support from 16,382 adult leaders, according to the BSA Maryland Report to the State. Scouting's impact in the state included 513,178 hours of community service during Eagle projects and other service projects in the 24 counties served by the councils.
