

JARED C. ADKINS

Jared and his wife, Audrey, live in Harrington, Delaware, have three children and are the proud parents of two eagle scouts. Jared graduated from the University of Delaware in Agricultural Engineering and is a Delaware Registered Professional Engineer. Since 1999, has managed the Kent Conservation District's Stormwater Program for Kent County, Delaware.

Jared's scouting career began in 2006 as a Tiger Cub Den Leader for his oldest son in Pack 79 and continued in roles as Den Leader, Asst. Cub Master and Cub Master. When his den crossed over to the newly formed Troop 534, Jared took on the role as Scoutmaster from 2011 to 2022. In 2018, Jared was asked by the youth officers to serve as Advisor for Venturing Crew 534. Jared currently serves as Committee Chair for Troop 534 (Boys) and 1534 (Girls) at the unit level.

At the District level, Jared has served as the Two Bays District Roundtable Commissioner, Unit Commissioner, and Committee Member at Large. Jared currently fills those same roles in the newly formed Coastal District. He has also served on various District and Council committees, staffed several Woodbadge courses, and Cub Colleges.

In addition to mentoring numerous Eagle Scouts, the highlights of Jared's scouting career have been supporting Crew 246 on an international scuba diving trip to Bonaire, staffing the 2019 World Scout Jamboree, and completing Philmont treks in 2022 and 2025.
