

CLAUDINE WIANT, J.D.

Claudine Wiant, J.D. (claudinewiant@pcadelaware.org) currently serves as the Executive Director of Prevent Child Abuse Delaware (PCAD), a statewide non-profit organization serving over 40,000 children, home visiting professionals and foster families, since 2023.

Claudine is a retired sergeant after 20 years of service with New Castle County Police. While “on the job”, she was a patrol sergeant, family services unit detective, crime prevention supervisor, media coordinator, and served as a hostage/crisis negotiator and mediator. After retiring from policing, she served as a Title IX Civil Rights Investigator, Clery Compliance Coordinator, Adjunct Professor and Constable at Wilmington University followed by serving as the Director of Programs for the Beau Biden Foundation for the Protection of Children.

Claudine graduated from Delaware Law School with her Juris Doctor and prior, earned her Master of Science in Administration of Justice. Claudine volunteers as a certified Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA), statewide facilitator for the Office of the Child Advocate, and serves on various boards and committees including Del-Mar-Va Council of Boy Scouts of America, WOW Science, State of Delaware Child Protection Accountability Commission, Human Trafficking Advisory Board, Home Visiting Community Advisory Board, among others. She is the mother of three sons and lives with her husband, Michael, on a small farm outside of Oxford, Pennsylvania.

