

JAMES EDWARDS

James Edwards serves as a pediatric nurse at Nemours Children’s Health in Wilmington, Delaware, where he was previously a patient and volunteer.

A lifelong Scout with Troop 33, James began his Scouting journey as a Cub Scout and went on to serve as Patrol Leader, Senior Patrol Leader and Junior Assistant Scoutmaster before earning the rank of Eagle Scout.

James graduated from the University of Virginia in 2025, where he served as Class President and led the university’s student leadership development program. While at UVA, James helped develop and implement CommSense, a wearable smartwatch designed to improve communication and decision making in palliative cancer care.

His commitment to service extends throughout the community. James has served as the ambassador of rare diseases at Nemours Children’s Health, youth advocate and international ambassador at the YMCA of Delaware, chair of the New Castle County Youth Planning Board, and election official for the State of Delaware.

James is the recipient of the St. Francis DeSales Provincial Medal of Honor and the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award, recognizing his leadership, character, and service to others.

