

Del-Mar-Va Council Membership Discount Application

Membership in the programs of Scouting America provides life-changing experiences for children and their families. The Del-Mar-Va Council wants to do everything possible to ensure that the cost of Scouting is not a barrier to participation for any member of our community. Please complete the next few questions to see if your child/children may qualify. This form must be submitted with a completed Scouting America youth membership application to take advantage of any registration discounts.
